

Federalist No. 10

Name _____

1. List and define four essential vocabulary words.

a. _____

b. _____

c. _____

d. _____

2. Identify and describe the author of Federalist 10. _____

3. When was it written? _____

4. For what audience was this source produced? _____

5. What type of group does the author identify as the greatest threat to democracy? _____

6. Why are these groups always bad?

7. Explain the 2 methods of curing the effects of factions.

a. _____

b. _____

8. Explain the 2 methods to remove the causes for factions.

a. _____

b. _____

9. Why is it impossible to remove the causes of factions?

10. Define a majority faction and a minority faction.

11. Why is a majority faction more dangerous than a minority faction?

12. According to the author, what is the best way to limit the dangers of a majority faction?

13. Explain the two advantages in controlling factions that a republic has over a democracy.

a.

b.

14. List one concept, principle or event not mentioned in this source you believe is related to the source. Explain your reasoning.

14. List one questions that you have regarding the meaning of this source.
